Alvaro Torres, CEO and Director comments, "We are very excited to be partnering with some of the country's leading specialized medical institutions to increase awareness and provide safe access to patients seeking different types of treatments. As more external health care providers complete our medical cannabis education program, physician engagement and willingness to prescribe continues to improve, providing greater access to the more than two million patients that suffer from chronic pain in Colombia. In due course, we hope to expand the reach of these campaigns to include additional pathologies and more countries throughout the region."

The campaign will be hosted in 11 Colombian cities in partnership with 21 participating clinics, which will be donating up to 3,000 medical consultations throughout the month of June. Consultations will be provided both in person and through teleconsultation channels. The campaign will be co-organized by Khiron and the Colombia Cancer League, a leading institution in the provision of oncology services, with 60 years of experience in the country.

Patients may schedule their consultation by dialing +57 333 0333191 or through the website www.cannabismedicinaparatuvida.com.

About Khiron Life Sciences Corp.
